

DELVAUX SECRET GARDEN

Delvaux, the world's oldest luxury leather goods Maison, is proud to announce the opening of Delvaux Secret Garden in the 'Sky Garden', floating 140m above street level in the Garden Terrace at The Tokyo EDITION, Toranomon.

Delvaux Secret Garden will be open for a limited period from May 12 to July 31 and will offer twilight afternoon tea along with a four-course dinner incorporating Delvaux's exceptional savoir-faire and Belgian identity that has been with the Maison throughout its history since 1829. The menus have been created by world renowned Michelin-starred chef Tom Aikens, who has partnered with The Tokyo EDITION, Toranomon to deliver their new specialty restaurant, scheduled to open later this summer.

"It's our canvas of creativity that can be seen as art as well as food, sometimes looking too good to even touch. That's why I have partnered with Delvaux, as they share the same values as me, unique craftsmanship with unique creativity." - Tom Aikens
